Celan

36 Lesson Packs

A 12 week course · three lessons per week

Each lesson includes a model, a short explanation, practice, an independent task, a hint, an answer key, and source links.

Contents

Week	Lessons
1	A. Hear the action B. Give a command C. First Motion scene
2	A. Speaker and listener B. One person or a group C. Open a question
3	A. Say no to an action B. Ask a negative question C. Name the missing answer
4	A. Roots as seeds B. Meaning from compounds C. One and many
5	A. Present and past B. Look ahead C. Ongoing versus located
6	A. Mark a place B. Movement or residence C. Ask where
7	A. Possession or absence B. Personal belongings C. Groups and third persons
8	A. The first numbers B. Build upward C. Count in an exchange
9	A. Respectful address B. Care and action C. Different social settings
10	A. Sentence openings and I B. Meaningful capitals C. Read a short exchange
11	A. If a friend goes B. The friend who goes C. Link a condition and a description
12	A. Repair and retrieve B. Rehearse an exchange C. Capstone: live in the language

Week 1, Lesson A: Hear the action

Objective: Identify the action before its participants.

Source links: Grammar Guide · Dictionary headwords · Dictionary examples · Expressions. Grammar topics: The Revised Celan Phonetic Guide, Action-First Sentence Structure. Focus forms: `Var`, `I`.

Suggested session: 3 minutes with models, 10 minutes practice, 8 minutes independent use, then a brief review.

Model and explanation

Celan	Meaning
`var I dren.`	I go to the water.
`ohmaen I Ya.`	I love or cherish you.

Both clauses lead with the verb. The pronoun I follows it and sounds like ee.

Practice

Build Words

1. What does `Var` mean in this lesson?
2. Write the Celan form for I or me, pronounced ee.

Read, build, and fix meaning

3. Read model A. What does it mean in English?
4. Read model B. What does it mean in English?
5. In model A, label the action, speaker, and destination.
6. How is the written pronoun I pronounced?

Independent task

Point to the action in each line before translating. Use the two models as choices or frames; answer without looking.

Hint

Listen for the first word; it names the action.

Answer key and feedback

1. go or move.
2. `I`.
3. I go to the water.
4. I love or cherish you.
5. var / I / dren
6. ee

Independent response guide: Point to var in A and ohmaen in B before translating.

Review tomorrow: Revisit the two headwords, then reproduce model B without looking. Review it again after three and seven days if correct.

Week 1, Lesson B: Give a command

Objective: Use va at the front of a direct command.

Source links: Grammar Guide · Dictionary headwords · Dictionary examples · Expressions. Grammar topics: Questions and Commands. Focus forms: Va, An.

Suggested session: 3 minutes with models, 10 minutes practice, 8 minutes independent use, then a brief review.

Model and explanation

Celan	Meaning
`var I an dren.`	I go to the water.
`va var an dren!`	Go to the water!

Va turns the second line into a direct instruction.

Command bank for the Week 1 mastery check

These five approved examples give the learner several useful commands. Introduce the extra vocabulary by meaning first; the learner does not need to analyze every word yet.

Celan	Meaning
`va var an dren!`	Go to the water!
`va var Ya an deni.`	Come here.
`va jekaen Ya naku.`	Turn left.
`va jekaen Ya sora.`	Turn right.
`va mbaen Ya I.`	Help me.

For the five-command check, give the scene or English intention, then accept these recorded lines with punctuation tolerance while preserving their words and order.

Practice

Build Words

1. What does Va mean in this lesson?
2. Write the Celan form for at, in, or on a physical place.

Read, build, and fix meaning

3. Read model A. What does it mean in English?
4. Read model B. What does it mean in English?
5. Which model is a command?
6. What word makes it a command?

Independent task

Guide someone toward water with one short instruction. Use the two models as choices or frames; answer without looking.

Hint

The command signpost comes before the verb.

Answer key and feedback

1. command marker.
2. An.
3. I go to the water.
4. Go to the water!
5. B
6. va

Independent response guide: va var an dren! is the direct instruction.

Review tomorrow: Revisit the two headwords, then reproduce model B without looking. Review it again after three and seven days if correct.

Week 1, Lesson C: First Motion scene

Objective: Choose a command and a gentle offer in context.

Source links: Grammar Guide · Dictionary headwords · Dictionary examples · Expressions. Grammar topics: Questions and Commands. Focus forms: `Dro`, `Var`.

Suggested session: 3 minutes with models, 10 minutes practice, 8 minutes independent use, then a brief review.

Model and explanation

Celan	Meaning
`va var an dren!`	Go to the water!
`Dro?`	Water?; a gentle offer of care.

The first line directs action; the second offers care without requiring explanation.

Practice

Build Words

1. What does `Dro` mean in this lesson?
2. Write the Celan form for go or move.

Read, build, and fix meaning

3. Read model A. What does it mean in English?
4. Read model B. What does it mean in English?
5. Which model directs movement?
6. Which model offers help without demanding an explanation?

Independent task

At a doorway, give a direction; afterward, offer water. Use the two models as choices or frames; answer without looking.

Hint

Decide whether the person needs direction or an offer.

Answer key and feedback

1. water.
2. `Var`.
3. Go to the water!
4. Water?; a gentle offer of care.
5. A
6. B

Independent response guide: Use model A for the direction, then model B for the offer.

Review tomorrow: Revisit the two headwords, then reproduce model B without looking. Review it again after three and seven days if correct.

Week 2, Lesson A: Speaker and listener

Objective: Recognize I and Ya in a short VSO clause.

Source links: Grammar Guide · Dictionary headwords · Dictionary examples · Expressions. Grammar topics: Personal Pronouns, Action-First Sentence Structure. Focus forms: `I`, `Ya`.

Suggested session: 3 minutes with models, 10 minutes practice, 8 minutes independent use, then a brief review.

Model and explanation

Celan	Meaning
`var I dren.`	I go to the water.
`ohmaen I Ya.`	I love or cherish you.

I is the speaker; Ya is the listener. The verb still comes first.

Practice

Build Words

1. What does `I` mean in this lesson?
2. Write the Celan form for you, one listener.

Read, build, and fix meaning

3. Read model A. What does it mean in English?
4. Read model B. What does it mean in English?
5. Who speaks in both models?
6. Who is addressed in model B?

Independent task

Identify speaker and listener in each model. Use the two models as choices or frames; answer without looking.

Hint

Ask who is speaking and who is addressed.

Answer key and feedback

1. I or me, pronounced ee.
2. `Ya`.
3. I go to the water.
4. I love or cherish you.
5. I
6. Ya

Independent response guide: In A, I is the speaker. In B, I is the speaker and Ya is the listener.

Review tomorrow: Revisit the two headwords, then reproduce model B without looking. Review it again after three and seven days if correct.

Week 2, Lesson B: One person or a group

Objective: Select the six basic personal pronouns by role and number.

Source links: Grammar Guide · Dictionary headwords · Dictionary examples · Expressions. Grammar topics: Personal Pronouns. Focus forms: `Ilin`, `Yalin`.

Suggested session: 3 minutes with models, 10 minutes practice, 8 minutes independent use, then a brief review.

Model and explanation

Celan	Meaning
`Ilin`	we
`Yalin`	you all

The -lin forms name groups; Ilin includes the speaker and Yalin addresses a group.

Practice

Build Words

1. What does `Ilin` mean in this lesson?
2. Write the Celan form for you all.

Read, build, and fix meaning

3. Read model A. What does it mean in English?
4. Read model B. What does it mean in English?
5. Which form includes the speaker?
6. Which form addresses several listeners?

Independent task

Label a two-person speaker group and a group being addressed. Use the two models as choices or frames; answer without looking.

Hint

Use the pronoun chart before trying a sentence.

Answer key and feedback

1. we.
2. `Yalin`.
3. we
4. you all
5. Ilin
6. Yalin

Independent response guide: Ilin names the speaker's group; Yalin addresses a group.

Review tomorrow: Revisit the two headwords, then reproduce model B without looking. Review it again after three and seven days if correct.

Week 2, Lesson C: Open a question

Objective: Recognize ra as the opening of an ordinary question.

Source links: Grammar Guide · Dictionary headwords · Dictionary examples · Expressions. Grammar topics: Questions and Commands. Focus forms: `Ra`, `Ser`.

Suggested session: 3 minutes with models, 10 minutes practice, 8 minutes independent use, then a brief review.

Model and explanation

Celan	Meaning
`var I dren.`	I go to the water.
`ra var ser an dren?`	Does the friend go to the water?

Ra opens the question; the verb remains ahead of the subject.

Practice

Build Words

1. What does `Ra` mean in this lesson?
2. Write the Celan form for friend.

Read, build, and fix meaning

3. Read model A. What does it mean in English?
4. Read model B. What does it mean in English?
5. Identify the opening question marker in B.
6. Identify the action and subject in B.

Independent task

Ask whether the friend goes to the water. Use the two models as choices or frames; answer without looking.

Hint

Look at the first word before reading the rest.

Answer key and feedback

1. question marker.
2. `Ser`.
3. I go to the water.
4. Does the friend go to the water?
5. ra
6. var / ser

Independent response guide: ra var ser an dren? asks whether the friend goes to the water.

Review tomorrow: Revisit the two headwords, then reproduce model B without looking. Review it again after three and seven days if correct.

Week 3, Lesson A: Say no to an action

Objective: Place ver directly before the verb for a negative statement.

Source links: Grammar Guide · Dictionary headwords · Dictionary examples · Expressions. Grammar topics: Negation. Focus forms: `Ver`, `Var`.

Suggested session: 3 minutes with models, 10 minutes practice, 8 minutes independent use, then a brief review.

Model and explanation

Celan	Meaning
`var I dren.`	I go to the water.
`ver var I dren.`	I do not go to the water.

Ver before var negates the action.

Practice

Build Words

1. What does `Ver` mean in this lesson?
2. Write the Celan form for go or move.

Read, build, and fix meaning

3. Read model A. What does it mean in English?
4. Read model B. What does it mean in English?
5. Find the negation marker in B.
6. Where does it stand relative to the verb?

Independent task

Tell a companion that you are not going to the water. Use the two models as choices or frames; answer without looking.

Hint

The negative sign sits immediately before the action.

Answer key and feedback

1. negation marker.
2. `Var`.
3. I go to the water.
4. I do not go to the water.
5. ver
6. Immediately before var

Independent response guide: ver var I dren. is the negative statement.

Review tomorrow: Revisit the two headwords, then reproduce model B without looking. Review it again after three and seven days if correct.

Week 3, Lesson B: Ask a negative question

Objective: Recognize the order ra ver plus verb.

Source links: Grammar Guide · Dictionary headwords · Dictionary examples · Expressions. Grammar topics: Questions and Commands. Focus forms: `Ra`, `Ver`.

Suggested session: 3 minutes with models, 10 minutes practice, 8 minutes independent use, then a brief review.

Model and explanation

Celan	Meaning
`ra var ser an dren?`	Does the friend go to the water?
`ra ver var ser an dren?`	Does the friend not go to the water?

Ra opens the question; ver negates the verb after it.

Practice

Build Words

1. What does `Ra` mean in this lesson?
2. Write the Celan form for negation marker.

Read, build, and fix meaning

3. Read model A. What does it mean in English?
4. Read model B. What does it mean in English?
5. Name the two signposts at the start of B, in order.
6. Which model asks a negative question?

Independent task

Ask whether the friend is not going to the water. Use the two models as choices or frames; answer without looking.

Hint

Read the two signposts in order.

Answer key and feedback

1. question marker.
2. `Ver`.
3. Does the friend go to the water?
4. Does the friend not go to the water?
5. ra, then ver
6. B

Independent response guide: ra ver var ser an dren? is the negative question.

Review tomorrow: Revisit the two headwords, then reproduce model B without looking. Review it again after three and seven days if correct.

Week 3, Lesson C: Name the missing answer

Objective: Recognize optional lo at the end of a where-question.

Source links: Grammar Guide · Dictionary headwords · Dictionary examples · Expressions. Grammar topics: Optional content-question tails, Asking open questions. Focus forms: Ra, Lo.

Suggested session: 3 minutes with models, 10 minutes practice, 8 minutes independent use, then a brief review.

Model and explanation

Celan	Meaning
`ra var ser?`	Where does the friend go? Context supplies place.
`ra var ser lo?`	Where does the friend go? Lo makes place explicit.

Lo names the missing answer as a place; the question can also work without it.

Practice

Build Words

1. What does Ra mean in this lesson?
2. Write the Celan form for where-question tail.

Read, build, and fix meaning

3. Read model A. What does it mean in English?
4. Read model B. What does it mean in English?
5. Which model makes the missing place explicit?
6. Is lo required in every where-question?

Independent task

In a noisy setting, make the place question explicit. Use the two models as choices or frames; answer without looking.

Hint

The final particle is optional, not a second verb.

Answer key and feedback

1. question marker.
2. Lo.
3. Where does the friend go? Context supplies place.
4. Where does the friend go? Lo makes place explicit.
5. B
6. No; it is optional

Independent response guide: ra var ser lo? makes the missing place explicit.

Review tomorrow: Revisit the two headwords, then reproduce model B without looking. Review it again after three and seven days if correct.

Week 4, Lesson A: Roots as seeds

Objective: Trace a recorded water word without inventing a suffix.

Source links: Grammar Guide · Dictionary headwords · Dictionary examples · Expressions. Grammar topics: Derivation and Word Formation. Focus forms: `Dren`, `Drenaen`.

Suggested session: 3 minutes with models, 10 minutes practice, 8 minutes independent use, then a brief review.

Model and explanation

Celan	Meaning
`Dren`	water
`Drenaen`	to drink or take liquid

Drenaen is an approved headword; the verb-forming ending is -aen.

Practice

Build Words

1. What does `Dren` mean in this lesson?
2. Write the Celan form for to drink or take liquid.

Read, build, and fix meaning

3. Read model A. What does it mean in English?
4. Read model B. What does it mean in English?
5. Which model is the water noun?
6. Which is the approved verb meaning to drink?

Independent task

Explain the relation between water and drinking. Use the two models as choices or frames; answer without looking.

Hint

Check the recorded word before guessing from a pattern.

Answer key and feedback

1. water.
2. `Drenaen`.
3. water
4. to drink or take liquid
5. A: Dren
6. B: Drenaen

Independent response guide: Dren is water; Drenaen is the approved verb to drink.

Review tomorrow: Revisit the two headwords, then reproduce model B without looking. Review it again after three and seven days if correct.

Week 4, Lesson B: Meaning from compounds

Objective: Use recorded components to interpret approved compounds.

Source links: Grammar Guide · Dictionary headwords · Dictionary examples · Expressions. Grammar topics: Compounding. Focus forms: `Morl`, `Morldren`.

Suggested session: 3 minutes with models, 10 minutes practice, 8 minutes independent use, then a brief review.

Model and explanation

Celan	Meaning
`Morldren`	waterfall
`Terradren`	fertile soil or well-irrigated land

The whole-word meanings are recorded; the parts help memory but do not license every possible compound.

Practice

Build Words

1. What does `Morl` mean in this lesson?
2. Write the Celan form for waterfall.

Read, build, and fix meaning

3. Read model A. What does it mean in English?
4. Read model B. What does it mean in English?
5. Which model names a waterfall?
6. What does Terradren mean as an approved whole word?

Independent task

Explain a waterfall and irrigated land using their approved words. Use the two models as choices or frames; answer without looking.

Hint

First name the parts, then check the dictionary meaning.

Answer key and feedback

1. mountain.
2. `Morldren`.
3. waterfall
4. fertile soil or well-irrigated land
5. A: Morldren
6. Fertile soil or well-irrigated land

Independent response guide: Morldren names a waterfall; Terradren names fertile or well-irrigated land.

Review tomorrow: Revisit the two headwords, then reproduce model B without looking. Review it again after three and seven days if correct.

Week 4, Lesson C: One and many

Objective: Choose -in or -n by the noun's ending.

Source links: Grammar Guide · Dictionary headwords · Dictionary examples · Expressions. Grammar topics: Pluralization, Plural and participant senses of -in. Focus forms: `Ser`, `Tera`.

Suggested session: 3 minutes with models, 10 minutes practice, 8 minutes independent use, then a brief review.

Model and explanation

Celan	Meaning
`Serin`	friends
`Teran`	homes

Ser ends in a consonant and takes -in; Tera ends in a vowel and takes -n.

Practice

Build Words

1. What does `Ser` mean in this lesson?
2. Write the Celan form for home.

Read, build, and fix meaning

3. Read model A. What does it mean in English?
4. Read model B. What does it mean in English?
5. What ending makes Ser plural?
6. What ending makes Tera plural?

Independent task

Make friend and home plural without changing the root. Use the two models as choices or frames; answer without looking.

Hint

Inspect the last sound of the singular noun.

Answer key and feedback

1. friend.
2. `Tera`.
3. friends
4. homes
5. -in
6. -n

Independent response guide: Ser becomes Serin; Tera becomes Teran.

Review tomorrow: Revisit the two headwords, then reproduce model B without looking. Review it again after three and seven days if correct.

Week 5, Lesson A: Present and past

Objective: Recognize the past prefix tha- on a familiar verb.

Source links: Grammar Guide · Dictionary headwords · Dictionary examples · Expressions. Grammar topics: Tenses and Aspects. Focus forms: `Var`, `Dren`.

Suggested session: 3 minutes with models, 10 minutes practice, 8 minutes independent use, then a brief review.

Model and explanation

Celan	Meaning
`var I dren.`	I go to the water.
`tha-var I dren.`	I went to the water.

Tha- marks the second event as past.

Practice

Build Words

1. What does `Var` mean in this lesson?
2. Write the Celan form for water.

Read, build, and fix meaning

3. Read model A. What does it mean in English?
4. Read model B. What does it mean in English?
5. Which model refers to a completed past trip?
6. What prefix marks that time?

Independent task

Report a journey that already happened. Use the two models as choices or frames; answer without looking.

Hint

The time prefix attaches to the verb.

Answer key and feedback

1. go or move.
2. `Dren`.
3. I go to the water.
4. I went to the water.
5. B
6. tha-

Independent response guide: tha-var I dren. reports the completed past trip.

Review tomorrow: Revisit the two headwords, then reproduce model B without looking. Review it again after three and seven days if correct.

Week 5, Lesson B: Look ahead

Objective: Recognize the future prefix nor- on a familiar verb.

Source links: Grammar Guide · Dictionary headwords · Dictionary examples · Expressions. Grammar topics: Tenses and Aspects. Focus forms: `Var`, `Nor`.

Suggested session: 3 minutes with models, 10 minutes practice, 8 minutes independent use, then a brief review.

Model and explanation

Celan	Meaning
`var I dren.`	I go to the water.
`nor-var I dren.`	I will go to the water.

Nor- marks the second action as future; here it is a verb prefix.

Practice

Build Words

1. What does `Var` mean in this lesson?
2. Write the Celan form for time.

Read, build, and fix meaning

3. Read model A. What does it mean in English?
4. Read model B. What does it mean in English?
5. Which model locates the trip in the future?
6. What prefix marks that time?

Independent task

State an intended trip to water. Use the two models as choices or frames; answer without looking.

Hint

Look for the prefix before var.

Answer key and feedback

1. go or move.
2. `Nor`.
3. I go to the water.
4. I will go to the water.
5. B
6. nor-

Independent response guide: nor-var I dren. states the future trip.

Review tomorrow: Revisit the two headwords, then reproduce model B without looking. Review it again after three and seven days if correct.

Week 5, Lesson C: Ongoing versus located

Objective: Distinguish continuous -al from the established word Varan.

Source links: Grammar Guide · Dictionary headwords · Dictionary examples · Expressions. Grammar topics: Varan and the universal continuous suffix. Focus forms: `Var`, `An`.

Suggested session: 3 minutes with models, 10 minutes practice, 8 minutes independent use, then a brief review.

Model and explanation

Celan	Meaning
`varal I dren.`	I am going to the water.
`varan I an Varthas.`	I am residing in the city.

-al marks continuous action; Varan is a separate locative-stative word, not a general -an ending.

Practice

Build Words

1. What does `Var` mean in this lesson?
2. Write the Celan form for physical location marker.

Read, build, and fix meaning

3. Read model A. What does it mean in English?
4. Read model B. What does it mean in English?
5. Which model uses the general continuous suffix?
6. Does Varan establish a general continuous -an ending?

Independent task

Say whether a line describes ongoing movement or residence. Use the two models as choices or frames; answer without looking.

Hint

Do not read the last two letters of Varan as a continuous suffix.

Answer key and feedback

1. go or move.
2. `An`.
3. I am going to the water.
4. I am residing in the city.
5. A: varal
6. No; it is a separate established word

Independent response guide: A is ongoing movement; B is residence in a city.

Review tomorrow: Revisit the two headwords, then reproduce model B without looking. Review it again after three and seven days if correct.

Week 6, Lesson A: Mark a place

Objective: Recognize an as a physical place relation.

Source links: Grammar Guide · Dictionary headwords · Dictionary examples · Expressions. Grammar topics: The Architecture of Relation: Prepositions, Place, and Time, Action-First Sentence Structure. Focus forms: `An`, `Dren`.

Suggested session: 3 minutes with models, 10 minutes practice, 8 minutes independent use, then a brief review.

Model and explanation

Celan	Meaning
`var I dren.`	I go to the water.
`var I an dren.`	I go to the water, with an explicit destination.

The second line states the destination with an; the bare goal is also attested with var.

Practice

Build Words

1. What does `An` mean in this lesson?
2. Write the Celan form for water.

Read, build, and fix meaning

3. Read model A. What does it mean in English?
4. Read model B. What does it mean in English?
5. Which model makes the destination explicit with an?
6. Can the bare-goal pattern with var automatically be used with every motion verb?

Independent task

Identify the explicit destination in a route line. Use the two models as choices or frames; answer without looking.

Hint

Do not extend the bare-goal pattern to every motion verb.

Answer key and feedback

1. at, in, or on a physical place.
2. `Dren`.
3. I go to the water.
4. I go to the water, with an explicit destination.
5. B
6. No

Independent response guide: an dren in B explicitly marks the destination.

Review tomorrow: Revisit the two headwords, then reproduce model B without looking. Review it again after three and seven days if correct.

Week 6, Lesson B: Movement or residence

Objective: Distinguish going somewhere from staying there.

Source links: Grammar Guide · Dictionary headwords · Dictionary examples · Expressions. Grammar topics: The Architecture of Relation: Prepositions, Place, and Time, Varan and the universal continuous suffix. Focus forms: `Var`, `Varan`.

Suggested session: 3 minutes with models, 10 minutes practice, 8 minutes independent use, then a brief review.

Model and explanation

Celan	Meaning
`var kadron an morl.`	The man goes to the mountain.
`varan I an Varthas.`	I am residing in the city.

Var describes going; Varan is the established word for residence or location.

Practice

Build Words

1. What does `Var` mean in this lesson?
2. Write the Celan form for reside, stay, or be located.

Read, build, and fix meaning

3. Read model A. What does it mean in English?
4. Read model B. What does it mean in English?
5. Which model describes movement?
6. Which model describes residence?

Independent task

Choose whether a traveler is moving or staying. Use the two models as choices or frames; answer without looking.

Hint

Read the whole verb, not just its first three letters.

Answer key and feedback

1. go or move.
2. `Varan`.
3. The man goes to the mountain.
4. I am residing in the city.
5. A
6. B

Independent response guide: A describes movement toward the mountain; B describes residence in Varthas.

Review tomorrow: Revisit the two headwords, then reproduce model B without looking. Review it again after three and seven days if correct.

Week 6, Lesson C: Ask where

Objective: Use an explicit place-question tail when needed.

Source links: Grammar Guide · Dictionary headwords · Dictionary examples · Expressions. Grammar topics: Optional content-question tails. Focus forms: Ra, Lo.

Suggested session: 3 minutes with models, 10 minutes practice, 8 minutes independent use, then a brief review.

Model and explanation

Celan	Meaning
`ra var ser?`	Where does the friend go? Context supplies place.
`ra var ser lo?`	Where does the friend go? Lo makes place explicit.

Both questions can be grammatical; lo explicitly names the missing place.

Practice

Build Words

1. What does Ra mean in this lesson?
2. Write the Celan form for where-question tail.

Read, build, and fix meaning

3. Read model A. What does it mean in English?
4. Read model B. What does it mean in English?
5. Which model includes the optional where tail?
6. What answer category does lo request?

Independent task

Ask a companion where the friend goes in a noisy scene. Use the two models as choices or frames; answer without looking.

Hint

Ask what answer the speaker expects.

Answer key and feedback

1. question marker.
2. Lo.
3. Where does the friend go? Context supplies place.
4. Where does the friend go? Lo makes place explicit.
5. B
6. Place, location, source, or destination

Independent response guide: ra var ser lo? asks explicitly for a place.

Review tomorrow: Revisit the two headwords, then reproduce model B without looking. Review it again after three and seven days if correct.

Week 7, Lesson A: Possession or absence

Objective: Distinguish attached -ka from standalone ka.

Source links: Grammar Guide · Dictionary headwords · Dictionary examples · Expressions. Grammar topics: Possession: spacing and suffix hierarchy. Focus forms: `Ka`, `I`.

Suggested session: 3 minutes with models, 10 minutes practice, 8 minutes independent use, then a brief review.

Model and explanation

Celan	Meaning
`I-ka dren`	my water
`var I ka shal.`	I go without light.

The hyphen changes the relation: I-ka is possessive; standalone ka means without.

Practice

Build Words

1. What does `Ka` mean in this lesson?
2. Write the Celan form for I or me.

Read, build, and fix meaning

3. Read model A. What does it mean in English?
4. Read model B. What does it mean in English?
5. In A, is ka attached or standalone?
6. In B, what does standalone ka mean?

Independent task

Choose between owning water and going without light. Use the two models as choices or frames; answer without looking.

Hint

Check whether ka is attached to the possessor.

Answer key and feedback

1. without or no when standalone.
2. `I`.
3. my water
4. I go without light.
5. Attached to I as -ka
6. Without

Independent response guide: I-ka dren means my water; var I ka shal. means I go without light.

Review tomorrow: Revisit the two headwords, then reproduce model B without looking. Review it again after three and seven days if correct.

Week 7, Lesson B: Personal belongings

Objective: Recognize the suffix after the possessed item.

Source links: Grammar Guide · Dictionary headwords · Dictionary examples · Expressions. Grammar topics: Possession: spacing and suffix hierarchy. Focus forms: `Korin`, `Noka`.

Suggested session: 3 minutes with models, 10 minutes practice, 8 minutes independent use, then a brief review.

Model and explanation

Celan	Meaning
`doran-ian`	my torso
`noka-ya`	your vulva

The suffix follows the possessed body part: -ian is my and -ya is your.

Practice

Build Words

1. What does `Korin` mean in this lesson?
2. Write the Celan form for vulva.

Read, build, and fix meaning

3. Read model A. What does it mean in English?
4. Read model B. What does it mean in English?
5. Which suffix means my?
6. Which suffix means your?

Independent task

Identify whose body part each phrase names. Use the two models as choices or frames; answer without looking.

Hint

Find the hyphen after the noun.

Answer key and feedback

1. hand.
2. `Noka`.
3. my torso
4. your vulva
5. -ian
6. -ya

Independent response guide: The owner is the speaker in A and the addressee in B.

Review tomorrow: Revisit the two headwords, then reproduce model B without looking. Review it again after three and seven days if correct.

Week 7, Lesson C: Groups and third persons

Objective: Read possessor-ka before the possessed item.

Source links: Grammar Guide · Dictionary headwords · Dictionary examples · Expressions. Grammar topics: Possession: spacing and suffix hierarchy. Focus forms: `Ilin`, `La`.

Suggested session: 3 minutes with models, 10 minutes practice, 8 minutes independent use, then a brief review.

Model and explanation

Celan	Meaning
`Ilin-ka emil`	our meal
`La-ka kelvor`	their mouth

The possessor carries -ka; the following noun is what is possessed.

Practice

Build Words

1. What does `Ilin` mean in this lesson?
2. Write the Celan form for he, she, or singular they.

Read, build, and fix meaning

3. Read model A. What does it mean in English?
4. Read model B. What does it mean in English?
5. Who possesses emil in A?
6. Who possesses kelvor in B?

Independent task

Identify the owner and item in each phrase. Use the two models as choices or frames; answer without looking.

Hint

Ask which word names the owner.

Answer key and feedback

1. we.
2. `La`.
3. our meal
4. their mouth
5. Ilin, the speaker's group
6. La, a third-person singular referent

Independent response guide: Ilin is the possessor of emil; La is the possessor of kelvor.

Review tomorrow: Revisit the two headwords, then reproduce model B without looking. Review it again after three and seven days if correct.

Week 8, Lesson A: The first numbers

Objective: Recognize the first two base number words.

Source links: Grammar Guide · Dictionary headwords · Dictionary examples · Expressions. Grammar topics: Numbers and Basic Math. Focus forms: `Unar`, `Del`.

Suggested session: 3 minutes with models, 10 minutes practice, 8 minutes independent use, then a brief review.

Model and explanation

Celan	Meaning
`Unar`	one
`Del`	two

These are base words; later numbers are built from them and other bases.

Practice

Build Words

1. What does `Unar` mean in this lesson?
2. Write the Celan form for two.

Read, build, and fix meaning

3. Read model A. What does it mean in English?
4. Read model B. What does it mean in English?
5. Which form means one?
6. Which form means two?

Independent task

Count one item, then two. Use the two models as choices or frames; answer without looking.

Hint

Say the amount, not the spelling pattern.

Answer key and feedback

1. one.
2. `Del`.
3. one
4. two
5. Unar
6. Del

Independent response guide: Unar counts one; Del counts two.

Review tomorrow: Revisit the two headwords, then reproduce model B without looking. Review it again after three and seven days if correct.

Week 8, Lesson B: Build upward

Objective: Read a mixed number and a scaled number.

Source links: Grammar Guide · Dictionary headwords · Dictionary examples · Expressions. Grammar topics: Numbers and Basic Math, Number building examples. Focus forms: `Tenar`, `Quen`.

Suggested session: 3 minutes with models, 10 minutes practice, 8 minutes independent use, then a brief review.

Model and explanation

Celan	Meaning
`Tenar unar`	eleven
`Hek-quen Ten-peth`	four hundred fifty

Larger unit first: ten plus one, then hundreds before tens.

Practice

Build Words

1. What does `Tenar` mean in this lesson?
2. Write the Celan form for four.

Read, build, and fix meaning

3. Read model A. What does it mean in English?
4. Read model B. What does it mean in English?
5. In Tenar unar, what is the total?
6. In Hek-quen Ten-peth, what is the total?

Independent task

Read a count of eleven and a count of four hundred fifty. Use the two models as choices or frames; answer without looking.

Hint

Separate the larger unit from the added part.

Answer key and feedback

1. ten.
2. `Quen`.
3. eleven
4. four hundred fifty
5. 11
6. 450

Independent response guide: Tenar unar is eleven; Hek-quen Ten-peth is four hundred fifty.

Review tomorrow: Revisit the two headwords, then reproduce model B without looking. Review it again after three and seven days if correct.

Week 8, Lesson C: Count in an exchange

Objective: Distinguish a built quantity from subtraction.

Source links: Grammar Guide · Dictionary headwords · Dictionary examples · Expressions. Grammar topics: Numbers and Basic Math. Focus forms: `Ven`, `Ten-del`.

Suggested session: 3 minutes with models, 10 minutes practice, 8 minutes independent use, then a brief review.

Model and explanation

Celan	Meaning
`Ten-del`	twenty
`Hek-quen Ven Hek-del`	four hundred minus two hundred, yielding two hundred

Ven marks subtraction; a built number without Ven expresses a quantity.

Practice

Build Words

1. What does `Ven` mean in this lesson?
2. Write the Celan form for twenty.

Read, build, and fix meaning

3. Read model A. What does it mean in English?
4. Read model B. What does it mean in English?
5. Which model is a quantity without subtraction?
6. What does Ven signal in B?

Independent task

Tell whether a market note names a quantity or a subtraction. Use the two models as choices or frames; answer without looking.

Hint

Look for Ven before calculating.

Answer key and feedback

1. subtraction marker.
2. `Ten-del`.
3. twenty
4. four hundred minus two hundred, yielding two hundred
5. A
6. Subtraction

Independent response guide: A is the quantity twenty. B is subtraction: four hundred minus two hundred.

Review tomorrow: Revisit the two headwords, then reproduce model B without looking. Review it again after three and seven days if correct.

Week 9, Lesson A: Respectful address

Objective: Recognize the Li- respect marker in address.

Source links: Grammar Guide · Dictionary headwords · Dictionary examples · Expressions. Grammar topics: Levels of Politeness. Focus forms: `Ser`, `Li-`.

Suggested session: 3 minutes with models, 10 minutes practice, 8 minutes independent use, then a brief review.

Model and explanation

Celan	Meaning
`var I dren, Ser.`	I go to the water, friend.
`var I dren, Li-Ser.`	I go to the water, respected friend.

The event stays the same; the address gains respect through Li-.

Practice

Build Words

1. What does `Ser` mean in this lesson?
2. Write the Celan form for respect marker.

Read, build, and fix meaning

3. Read model A. What does it mean in English?
4. Read model B. What does it mean in English?
5. Which address is more respectful?
6. What visible piece adds respect?

Independent task

Address a friend respectfully without changing the journey. Use the two models as choices or frames; answer without looking.

Hint

Compare the address at the end of each line.

Answer key and feedback

1. friend.
2. `Li-`.
3. I go to the water, friend.
4. I go to the water, respected friend.
5. B: Li-Ser
6. Li-

Independent response guide: var I dren, Li-Ser. uses the respectful address.

Review tomorrow: Revisit the two headwords, then reproduce model B without looking. Review it again after three and seven days if correct.

Week 9, Lesson B: Care and action

Objective: Choose a gentle offer or direct practical instruction by context.

Source links: Grammar Guide · Dictionary headwords · Dictionary examples · Expressions. Grammar topics: Cultural Voice: How Ohnosha Speaks Celan Differently. Focus forms: `Dro`, `Va`.

Suggested session: 3 minutes with models, 10 minutes practice, 8 minutes independent use, then a brief review.

Model and explanation

Celan	Meaning
`Dro?`	Water?; a gentle offer of care.
`Va tal dro; va ver kel.`	Give water; do not talk; prove care through action.

The first offers space; the second is a direct Zarithan expression for practical help.

Practice

Build Words

1. What does `Dro` mean in this lesson?
2. Write the Celan form for command marker.

Read, build, and fix meaning

3. Read model A. What does it mean in English?
4. Read model B. What does it mean in English?
5. Which model offers care without asking for a story?
6. Which model demands practical action?

Independent task

Pick a line for a distressed friend and one for urgent work. Use the two models as choices or frames; answer without looking.

Hint

Consider relationship, urgency, and tone.

Answer key and feedback

1. water.
2. `Va`.
3. Water?; a gentle offer of care.
4. Give water; do not talk; prove care through action.
5. A: Dro?
6. B: Va tal dro; va ver kel.

Independent response guide: Use Dro? for a gentle offer; use Va tal dro; va ver kel. for a direct call to useful action.

Review tomorrow: Revisit the two headwords, then reproduce model B without looking. Review it again after three and seven days if correct.

Week 9, Lesson C: Different social settings

Objective: Interpret an expression through its recorded context and tone.

Source links: Grammar Guide · Dictionary headwords · Dictionary examples · Expressions. Grammar topics: Cultural Voice: How Ohnosha Speaks Celan Differently. Focus forms: `Belnoraen`, `Mura`.

Suggested session: 3 minutes with models, 10 minutes practice, 8 minutes independent use, then a brief review.

Model and explanation

Celan	Meaning
`Ra belnoraen Ilin?`	Are we synchronized or ready together?
`Kel La ser mura.`	They speak with smoke; they evade a usable answer.

One is a Mechuman coordination check; the other can accuse someone of evasion.

Practice

Build Words

1. What does `Belnoraen` mean in this lesson?
2. Write the Celan form for smoke.

Read, build, and fix meaning

3. Read model A. What does it mean in English?
4. Read model B. What does it mean in English?
5. Which model is a coordination check?
6. Which model can accuse someone of evasion?

Independent task

Choose an expression for team readiness and one for evasive talk. Use the two models as choices or frames; answer without looking.

Hint

Do not treat an idiom as a literal report.

Answer key and feedback

1. synchronize.
2. `Mura`.
3. Are we synchronized or ready together?
4. They speak with smoke; they evade a usable answer.
5. A
6. B

Independent response guide: Use Ra belnoraen Ilin? to check readiness; Kel La ser mura. to describe evasion.

Review tomorrow: Revisit the two headwords, then reproduce model B without looking. Review it again after three and seven days if correct.

Week 10, Lesson A: Sentence openings and I

Objective: Keep ordinary sentence openings lowercase while capitalizing I.

Source links: Grammar Guide · Dictionary headwords · Dictionary examples · Expressions. Grammar topics: Capitalization and Emphasis. Focus forms: `I`, `Var`.

Suggested session: 3 minutes with models, 10 minutes practice, 8 minutes independent use, then a brief review.

Model and explanation

Celan	Meaning
`var I an dren.`	I go to the water.
`ohmaen I Ya.`	I love or cherish you.

The first ordinary verb is lowercase; the pronoun I remains capitalized.

Practice

Build Words

1. What does `I` mean in this lesson?
2. Write the Celan form for go or move.

Read, build, and fix meaning

3. Read model A. What does it mean in English?
4. Read model B. What does it mean in English?
5. Correct the ordinary opening in Var I an dren.
6. What capital stays in both models?

Independent task

Edit two ordinary sentences for Celan capitals. Use the two models as choices or frames; answer without looking.

Hint

Capitalization follows meaning and named exceptions, not English sentence starts.

Answer key and feedback

1. I or me, always capitalized.
2. `Var`.
3. I go to the water.
4. I love or cherish you.
5. var I an dren.
6. I

Independent response guide: Both lines open with lowercase verbs, while I remains capitalized.

Review tomorrow: Revisit the two headwords, then reproduce model B without looking. Review it again after three and seven days if correct.

Week 10, Lesson B: Meaningful capitals

Objective: Distinguish mundane ground from archetypal Earth in the guide.

Source links: Grammar Guide · Dictionary headwords · Dictionary examples · Expressions. Grammar topics: Capitalization and Emphasis, Capitalization examples. Focus forms: `Terra`, `I`.

Suggested session: 3 minutes with models, 10 minutes practice, 8 minutes independent use, then a brief review.

Model and explanation

Celan	Meaning
`terra`	ordinary earth, soil, or ground
`Terra`	archetypal Earth or the Heart of Terra

Capital T signals archetypal force in this teaching contrast.

Practice

Build Words

1. What does `Terra` mean in this lesson?
2. Write the Celan form for I or me, always capitalized.

Read, build, and fix meaning

3. Read model A. What does it mean in English?
4. Read model B. What does it mean in English?
5. Which model refers to ordinary soil?
6. Which model treats Earth as archetypal?

Independent task

Explain why a writer chose Terra instead of terra. Use the two models as choices or frames; answer without looking.

Hint

Do not capitalize a word merely because it starts a sentence.

Answer key and feedback

1. Earth or ground, with meaning shaped by context and capitalization.
2. `I`.
3. ordinary earth, soil, or ground
4. archetypal Earth or the Heart of Terra
5. A: terra
6. B: Terra

Independent response guide: Terra signals archetypal Earth in this contrast; terra means ordinary ground.

Review tomorrow: Revisit the two headwords, then reproduce model B without looking. Review it again after three and seven days if correct.

Week 10, Lesson C: Read a short exchange

Objective: Read known sentence shapes without translating word by word.

Source links: Grammar Guide · Dictionary headwords · Dictionary examples · Expressions. Grammar topics: Action-First Sentence Structure, Questions and Commands, Capitalization and Emphasis. Focus forms: `Ra`, `Ser`.

Suggested session: 3 minutes with models, 10 minutes practice, 8 minutes independent use, then a brief review.

Model and explanation

Celan	Meaning
`var I an dren.`	I go to the water.
`ra var ser an dren?`	Does the friend go to the water?

The first line states an action; the second asks about another participant.

Practice

Build Words

1. What does `Ra` mean in this lesson?
2. Write the Celan form for friend.

Read, build, and fix meaning

3. Read model A. What does it mean in English?
4. Read model B. What does it mean in English?
5. Which model is a question?
6. Who is the subject of that question?

Independent task

Read the two-line exchange and answer who goes where. Use the two models as choices or frames; answer without looking.

Hint

Mark the opening signpost before translating.

Answer key and feedback

1. question marker.
2. `Ser`.
3. I go to the water.
4. Does the friend go to the water?
5. B
6. ser, the friend

Independent response guide: A says I go to the water; B asks whether the friend goes to the water.

Review tomorrow: Revisit the two headwords, then reproduce model B without looking. Review it again after three and seven days if correct.

Week 11, Lesson A: If a friend goes

Objective: Recognize rath introducing an if-clause.

Source links: Grammar Guide · Dictionary headwords · Dictionary examples · Expressions. Grammar topics: Conditionals: future and past. Focus forms: `Rath`, `Ser`.

Suggested session: 3 minutes with models, 10 minutes practice, 8 minutes independent use, then a brief review.

Model and explanation

Celan	Meaning
`rath var ser, var I dren.`	If the friend goes, I go to the water.
`rath nor-var ser, nor-var I dren.`	If the friend will go, I will go to the water.

Rath opens the condition; both clauses keep an action before their participants.

Practice

Build Words

1. What does `Rath` mean in this lesson?
2. Write the Celan form for friend.

Read, build, and fix meaning

3. Read model A. What does it mean in English?
4. Read model B. What does it mean in English?
5. What word introduces the condition?
6. Which model marks both clauses as future?

Independent task

Explain what depends on the friend's action. Use the two models as choices or frames; answer without looking.

Hint

Read each clause separately before joining them.

Answer key and feedback

1. if or conditional marker.
2. `Ser`.
3. If the friend goes, I go to the water.
4. If the friend will go, I will go to the water.
5. rath
6. B

Independent response guide: The result clause depends on the friend's going; B also marks both clauses as future.

Review tomorrow: Revisit the two headwords, then reproduce model B without looking. Review it again after three and seven days if correct.

Week 11, Lesson B: The friend who goes

Objective: Recognize Lior after the noun it describes.

Source links: Grammar Guide · Dictionary headwords · Dictionary examples · Expressions. Grammar topics: Relative Clauses. Focus forms: `Lior`, `Ser`.

Suggested session: 3 minutes with models, 10 minutes practice, 8 minutes independent use, then a brief review.

Model and explanation

Celan	Meaning
`Ser Lior var an dren.`	The friend who goes to the water.
`var I an terra ser Ser Lior var an dren.`	I go home with the friend who goes to the water.

Lior introduces information about Ser; it does not begin a new independent question.

Practice

Build Words

1. What does `Lior` mean in this lesson?
2. Write the Celan form for friend.

Read, build, and fix meaning

3. Read model A. What does it mean in English?
4. Read model B. What does it mean in English?
5. What noun does Lior describe?
6. Which model adds a main going-home clause?

Independent task

Identify which friend is meant in the longer line. Use the two models as choices or frames; answer without looking.

Hint

Find the noun immediately before Lior.

Answer key and feedback

1. who or which in a relative clause.
2. `Ser`.
3. The friend who goes to the water.
4. I go home with the friend who goes to the water.
5. Ser
6. B

Independent response guide: Ser Lior var an dren. identifies the friend by their action.

Review tomorrow: Revisit the two headwords, then reproduce model B without looking. Review it again after three and seven days if correct.

Week 11, Lesson C: Link a condition and a description

Objective: Tell an if-clause from a noun description.

Source links: Grammar Guide · Dictionary headwords · Dictionary examples · Expressions. Grammar topics: Conditionals: future and past, Relative Clauses. Focus forms: `Rath`, `Lior`.

Suggested session: 3 minutes with models, 10 minutes practice, 8 minutes independent use, then a brief review.

Model and explanation

Celan	Meaning
`rath var ser, var I dren.`	If the friend goes, I go to the water.
`Ser Lior var an dren.`	The friend who goes to the water.

Rath connects a condition and outcome; Lior describes a noun.

Practice

Build Words

1. What does `Rath` mean in this lesson?
2. Write the Celan form for who or which in a relative clause.

Read, build, and fix meaning

3. Read model A. What does it mean in English?
4. Read model B. What does it mean in English?
5. Which model states a condition and result?
6. Which model identifies a particular friend?

Independent task

Choose the correct linked form for a condition and a description. Use the two models as choices or frames; answer without looking.

Hint

Ask whether the line predicts a result or identifies someone.

Answer key and feedback

1. if or conditional marker.
2. `Lior`.
3. If the friend goes, I go to the water.
4. The friend who goes to the water.
5. A
6. B

Independent response guide: A is a conditional result; B identifies a particular friend.

Review tomorrow: Revisit the two headwords, then reproduce model B without looking. Review it again after three and seven days if correct.

Week 12, Lesson A: Repair and retrieve

Objective: Retrieve question, negation, and possession patterns together.

Source links: Grammar Guide · Dictionary headwords · Dictionary examples · Expressions. Grammar topics: Questions and Commands, Possession: spacing and suffix hierarchy. Focus forms: `Ver`, `Ilin`.

Suggested session: 3 minutes with models, 10 minutes practice, 8 minutes independent use, then a brief review.

Model and explanation

Celan	Meaning
`ra ver var ser an dren?`	Does the friend not go to the water?
`Ilin-ka emil`	our meal

The first uses ra plus ver before the verb; the second attaches -ka to the possessor.

Practice

Build Words

1. What does `Ver` mean in this lesson?
2. Write the Celan form for we.

Read, build, and fix meaning

3. Read model A. What does it mean in English?
4. Read model B. What does it mean in English?
5. Name the question and negative markers in A.
6. Name the attached possessive marker in B.

Independent task

Explain a negative question and a group possession phrase. Use the two models as choices or frames; answer without looking.

Hint

Name the job of each marker before answering.

Answer key and feedback

1. negation marker.
2. `Ilin`.
3. Does the friend not go to the water?
4. our meal
5. ra and ver
6. -ka

Independent response guide: A has ra + ver before the verb; B attaches -ka to the group possessor.

Review tomorrow: Revisit the two headwords, then reproduce model B without looking. Review it again after three and seven days if correct.

Week 12, Lesson B: Rehearse an exchange

Objective: Choose lines for care and team coordination.

Source links: Grammar Guide · Dictionary headwords · Dictionary examples · Expressions. Grammar topics: Cultural Voice: How Ohnosha Speaks Celan Differently. Focus forms: `Dro`, `Belnoraen`.

Suggested session: 3 minutes with models, 10 minutes practice, 8 minutes independent use, then a brief review.

Model and explanation

Celan	Meaning
`Dro?`	Water?; a gentle offer of care.
`Ra belnoraen Ilin?`	Are we synchronized or ready together?

The same learner can speak gently to one person and check readiness with a group.

Practice

Build Words

1. What does `Dro` mean in this lesson?
2. Write the Celan form for synchronize.

Read, build, and fix meaning

3. Read model A. What does it mean in English?
4. Read model B. What does it mean in English?
5. Which line suits a person who may need quiet help?
6. Which line checks a group's readiness?

Independent task

Open a brief scene with care, then check group readiness. Use the two models as choices or frames; answer without looking.

Hint

Choose a line by audience and purpose.

Answer key and feedback

1. water.
2. `Belnoraen`.
3. Water?; a gentle offer of care.
4. Are we synchronized or ready together?
5. A: Dro?
6. B: Ra belnoraen Ilin?

Independent response guide: Use Dro? for individual care, then Ra belnoraen Ilin? for group readiness.

Review tomorrow: Revisit the two headwords, then reproduce model B without looking. Review it again after three and seven days if correct.

Week 12, Lesson C: Capstone: live in the language

Objective: Combine known form, meaning, and social choice in a bounded task.

Source links: Grammar Guide · Dictionary headwords · Dictionary examples · Expressions. Grammar topics: Action-First Sentence Structure, Questions and Commands, Capitalization and Emphasis. Focus forms: `Var`, `Ohmaen`.

Suggested session: 3 minutes with models, 10 minutes practice, 8 minutes independent use, then a brief review.

Model and explanation

Celan	Meaning
`var I an dren.`	I go to the water.
`ohmaen I Ya.`	I love or cherish you.

Both clauses begin with an action, preserve meaningful capitals, and can sit inside a longer scene.

Practice

Build Words

1. What does `Var` mean in this lesson?
2. Write the Celan form for love, cherish, or feel connection.

Read, build, and fix meaning

3. Read model A. What does it mean in English?
4. Read model B. What does it mean in English?
5. Which model has an explicit place relation?
6. Which pronoun in both models must be read ee?

Independent task

Write a six-to-eight-line Celan exchange or description using at least four taught patterns: an action-first clause, a question or command, a time or negation marker, and a relation or possession form. Annotate each line with the rule or model you used.

Hint

Use the taught forms and label each new line with the model you adapted.

Answer key and feedback

1. go or move.
2. `Ohmaen`.
3. I go to the water.
4. I love or cherish you.
5. A: an dren
6. I

Independent response guide: Rubric: six to eight intelligible lines; four taught patterns used correctly; pronoun I read as ee; meaningful capitals and hyphens preserved; every non-model form checked against the current guide. Models A and B are safe starting lines, not a complete sample response.

Review tomorrow: Revisit the two headwords, then reproduce model B without looking. Review it again after three and seven days if correct.